

Alec Mathis is a lifelong construction professional, veteran, and business owner with more than 26 years of combined experience in the construction and roofing industries. He is the owner and founder of A. Mathis Roofing & Construction, established in 2014, which has built a strong reputation for quality workmanship, integrity, and customer service throughout Oklahoma.

Alec is married and is proud to be part of a blended family with five children and two grandchildren. He served eight years in the United States Army, where he developed the leadership, discipline, and commitment to service that continue to guide both his professional and personal life.

Throughout his career, Alec has worked in residential and commercial construction, providing expertise in roofing, remodeling, additions, fencing, guttering, and general construction services. His company is a preferred vendor for the Choctaw Nation and maintains an A+ rating with the Better Business Bureau. A. Mathis Roofing & Construction is fully licensed and insured in both roofing and general construction.

Alec's decades of construction experience, business leadership, military service, and dedication to the community provide him with a practical and informed perspective on growth, development, infrastructure, and property issues. He looks forward to serving the citizens of Oklahoma County and contributing to responsible planning and development through his service on the Planning Commission.
