ATTACHMENT A

Background

The Greater Oklahoma City Chamber and its supporting foundation, Oklahoma City Economic Development Foundation, (herein referred to as the Chamber/Foundation) are the principal economic development organization(s) for Oklahoma City and Oklahoma County. The Chamber/Foundation takes a lead role in sustaining existing businesses, assisting business expansions, recruiting new companies and investment, and creating economic benefit through primary job creation for the region. The Chamber/Foundation is pleased to count Oklahoma County as one of its long-standing partners in improving the local economy and lives of residents.

Request

The 2025/2026 FY request is for $250,000, supports long-standing initiatives centered on growing and retaining economic development prosperity attached to the region's aerospace, military, and defense economy.

In order to communicate effectively regarding the support the County provides, the Economic To communicate effectively regarding its partnership with the County, the Chamber/Foundation is providing the attached metrics/deliverables outlining its goals and responsibilities per this Agreement to be reported on bi-annually through a written report. The Chamber/Foundation is also offering to provide verbal reports to the County Commission as requested.

For the 2025/2026 FY the Chamber/Foundation will focus its work in the following areas:

- Supporting the sustainment and growth of the missions and services of key Federal/military programs in the region including:
 - Tinker Air Force Base (the largest single site employer in Oklahoma County and State of Oklahoma)
 - The Mike Monroney Aeronautical Center (FAA) at Will Rogers World Airport
 - Other DoD, military and Federal workload located in the region
- Growing aerospace, DoD, and Federal investment including support for existing employers and new business investment.

These efforts run parallel to industry sector development efforts supported by community partnerships including the Oklahoma City regional business community (through Forward Oklahoma City) and public sector partners, including the City of Oklahoma City.
