

Kimberly Winston is a dynamic leader, event strategist, and community development professional whose work spans philanthropy, nonprofit advancement, and luxury event management. As the Founder & CEO of Courtney Chanel Management & Consulting and 12/12/24 Entertainment, Kimberly specializes in high-impact event production, stakeholder engagement, VIP concierge services, and sponsorship development for corporate partners, nonprofits, and municipalities.

Kimberly currently serves as the Director of Development for City Center, where she leads fundraising strategy, donor relations, and major events including the Annual City Center Gala, Giving Tuesday initiatives, and the forthcoming Voices of OKC Remote Podcast Series. Her work directly supports programs that provide meals, clothing, youth services, and emergency relief to families across Oklahoma City.

Kimberly is also recognized for her concierge-level planning and artist relations. She has coordinated talent and VIP experiences for national recording artists, community leaders, sponsors, and dignitaries—ensuring seamless, luxury-standard execution at every event. Her ability to manage logistics, secure sponsorships, and cultivate long-term partnerships has positioned her as a trusted collaborator throughout the state of Oklahoma.

In addition to her professional accomplishments, Kimberly is passionate about youth empowerment, community revitalization, and creating equitable opportunities for underserved families. Her leadership reflects a blend of creativity, strategy, compassion, and unwavering commitment to service.

Kimberly continues to expand her impact through philanthropic initiatives, event productions, stakeholder engagement, and upcoming projects across Oklahoma. Her work is grounded in excellence, purpose, and the belief that strong communities are built through collaboration, storytelling, and service.
