

Jennifer Arsenault Biography

Jennifer Arsenault is a lifelong Oklahoman and seasoned real estate professional who has been serving her community since 1998. As the founder and Broker Associate at Flotilla Real Estate Partners, Jennifer brings calm strategy and steady leadership to every transaction, from luxury estates and first homes to investment portfolios, relocations, divorces, and probate sales. Her practical, legal-minded approach and deep local insight help clients make confident, informed decisions in any market.

A graduate of Oklahoma's school of hard work and heart, Jennifer has built her career on service, not showmanship. She has closed more than 20,000 transactions and led hundreds of agents toward success through education, mentorship, and example. Her leadership roles include:

President of OKCMAR (2018),

MLSOK Board Director (2023–2024), and

Oklahoma County Board of Adjustment (2024–2027)

She's also contributed to the OREC Contract Forms Committee, helping to shape the laws and documents that protect consumers across the state. She is also a real estate instructor for The Broker School, where she's written more than 170 hours of accredited education for Oklahoma real estate professionals.

Jennifer believes real estate is about stewardship, caring for people, not just property. Her mission is to empower clients and agents alike with a strategic plan for prosperity. Outside of real estate, she's a joyful mother, an avid home cook, a gardener, and a weekend kayaker who believes that gratitude and prayer keep life in balance.
